DESIGNER'S NETWORK EVENT

Spirituality and Interior Design
 Presented by Dr. Lorell Frysh

Wednesday, January 18
 East Conference Room | 5:30pm
 Cost: Complimentary

The world's great spiritual traditions have given rise to sacred design in architecture and art for centuries. These traditions understood that sacred design has the power to shift consciousness. They knew that there is a deep connection between our outer world and our inner experience. Dr. Lorell Frysh will explain the principles taught by the great spiritual traditions, how they work, and how to use them in your own designs in order to enhance and optimize your client's experience.

Join us in the Columbine showroom for a reception before the presentation at 5pm!

RSVP is required. Call 303.282.3237 or amanda@denverdesign.com

I am very much enjoying the program and my involvement. I have worked with some showrooms I have not worked with much before, and met so many nice people. I have three good clients from the program and appreciate the opportunity to work with them.

I have had some great clients come from the program and certainly an increase in calls. I landed a custom home project earlier this year and the clients are awesome!
